Luxury on Wheels.

Mrs. George H. Pullman, the wife of the Pullman palace car Prince, has arrived at her Long Branch cottage. Her husband is on his way home from Europe and is expected to reach there on Sunday. After that the Pullmans will do considerable entertaining during the season. Mrs. Pullman came in a private car, accompanied by several Chicago ladies and by her children.

This magnificent car is sidetracked there, so that whenever she should be so disposed she can journey with comfort to any of the other summer resorts. A great many seem to believe that the lady travels about with a train of cars, but as a matter of fact, she only has this coach. It is a comparatively new one, and a party of ten or fifteen can live in it as comfortably as they could in the Pullman cottage here. At the rear entrance to the car is a reception room. The decorations of it are magnificent and are of an Oriental character. In one corner there is an elegant desk, and arranged about the room are a lot of upright chairs and a lounge. A secret recess is in one of the walls, and access to it is obtained by touching a spring, by which the wall is transformed into an elaborately carved sideboard filled with drawers, stocked with the finest wines and liquors. Some of Mr. Pullman's Cognac cost him over $50 a quart, and is imported by himself directly from France. He has brandies and whiskeys that are half a century old, and people who have enjoyed his cigars after an evening banquet say that they are simply delightful to contemplate. Mr. Pullman has the most expensive obtainable, and they are made according to his directions. Then they are taken and wrapped in leaves of different flavors, and kept at least a year before used. His own particular cigar is wrapped in orange leaves. Immediately back of this reception room which I have just described is the drawing room of the car. It occupies nearly one-third of the space. Of course, it is beautifully furnished, and in it are a stationary piano and a stand of music. Nearly every evening while Mrs. Pullman is traveling there is music. Her twin sons, who have just attained their twelfth year, play delightfully on the violin, and most of the time their mother accompanies them on the piano. She is an excellent pianist, and while the car is rattling along at the rate of a mile a minute the mother and the two children are enjoying themselves over their melodies with as much comfort as if they were in the parlor of their handsome residence in Chicago. Leading from this drawing room are the sleeping apartments, and then come the dining room and kitchen. Two cooks, a butler, two waiters, a chambermaid, and two ladies' maids always accompany Mrs. Pullman.

A new car, said to be the most magnificent that has ever been constructed by the Pullman company, has just been completed for the family's use. With the interior furnishings, its cost is said to have been $150,000. This is the twelfth season that Mrs. Pullman has spent at Long Branch, and her twin boys were born there. In commemoration of that event she was very anxious to go there in her new car, but owing to Mr. Pullman's prolonged absence abroad she could not do so, for it is not to be used until her husband has passed her approval upon it, but Mr. Pullman's practical eye may discover several things wanting, and the car remains in the works at Chicago until he can find time to go out to see it.—Philadelphia Press.

THE COLOR LINE AGAIN—"Why is it?"

asked a reporter of Gen. C. S. Bentley, general manager of the Chicago International Military Encampment, "that companies composed of colored men will not be allowed to take part in the international encampment and drill?" "Because it is desirable that perfect harmony should prevail and that we would not be the case if colored companies were allowed to participate. We reserved the right to reject applications for entry and it is not our purpose to accept the entry of any organization, white or colored, that will interfere with perfect harmony among the troops. I made the order entirely on my own judgment without consulting others directly interested. I made the decision and adhere to it because I do not think it wise to bring uncongenial elements together. The occurrences at the National Military Encampment in Washington last May show that the admission of colored organizations would cause bad feeling. Colored companies were allowed to participate there, but they were compelled to camp apart from the other troops, and certainly were ostracized in many ways. I do not want anything of the sort to happen here." The order was revoked last night, and colored companies regularly mustered into the National Guard will be allowed to compete.

Every Woman Knows Them.

The human body is much like a good clock or watch in its movements; if one goes too slow or too fast, so follow all the others, and bad time results; if one organ or set of organs works imperfectly, perversion of functional effort of all the organs is sure to follow. Hence it is that the numerous ailments which make woman's life miserable are the direct issue of the abnormal action of the uterine system. For all that numerous class of symptoms—and every woman knows them—there is one unfailing remedy, Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," the favorite of the sex.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle.
